STATEMENT OF PROBABLE CAUSE

Complainant has investigated the facts and circumstances of this offense and believes the following establishes probable cause:

On or about August 11, 2016, officers with the Minneapolis Police Department were dispatched to a bus stop located in the area of Dowling Avenue and Fremont Avenue North, Minneapolis, Hennepin County, Minnesota, on the report of a shooting. Upon arrival, officers observed the adult male victim R.I. lying down on the street near the bus stop. Officers observed that R.I. had suffered a gunshot wound to his face. Officers spoke to several witnesses at the scene. Witnesses informed officers that R.I. was at the bus stop when two different parties started shooting at each other. R.I. was an innocent bystander and in the crossfire was shot in the face. Witnesses then observed two of the male suspects involved in the shooting run from the scene and flee the scene in a silver Chevy Impala.

Investigators spoke to victim R.I. R.I. informed officers that he was struck with broken glass and suffered lacerations to his face. R.I. had to seek medical treatment for his injuries.

Adult male victim E.W. was identified as the target of the shooting. E.W. was standing next to R.I. when the shooting started. After the shooting, several witnesses observed E.W. hide a firearm. A firearm was subsequently recovered in the area identified by witnesses. Investigators spoke with E.W. E.W. informed investigators that he was standing next to R.I. at the bus stop. R.I. and E.W. were involved in a conversation. E.W. then heard eight shots and ran from the area. E.W. returned to the bus stop and saw R.I. was bleeding from the face. E.W. assisted R.I. and then got on a MTC bus.

Officers subsequently observed the silver Chevy Impala in the area. Officers attempted to initiate a traffic stop of the silver Chevy Impala. The passenger of the vehicle who was subsequently identified as ANTHONY LAMONT FOOTE, the Co-Defendant herein, exited the vehicle and fled on foot. Officers observed that the Co-Defendant was carrying a black handgun that was wrapped in a black t-shirt. The Co-Defendant was subsequently apprehended in the area. A search of the area was done using a K9 officer. During a search of the area, officers discovered a black handgun with a black t-shirt wrapped around it.

The driver of the vehicle was subsequently identified as ANTHONY REVON CLAY, the Defendant herein. The Defendant failed to stop for officers and fled in the silver Chevy Impala. The Defendant was subsequently apprehended.

Officers conducted a show up with the Defendant and Co-Defendant. Witnesses positively identified the Defendant and Co-Defendant as two of the individuals involved in the shooting.

The Defendant was interviewed by investigators. In a post-Miranda statement the Defendant admitted to driving the silver Impala and fleeing officers. The Defendant informed officers that officers attempted to initiate a traffic stop of his vehicle. The Defendant started to pull over when his front seat passenger jumped out of the car and fled on foot. The Defendant then drove away because he thought he had a warrant.

The Co-Defendant was interviewed by investigators. In a post Miranda statement the Co-Defendant initially denied any knowledge or involvement in the shooting. Investigators informed the Co-Defendant that he had shot an innocent bystander who was at the bus stop. The Co-Defendant then admitted to being involved in the shooting. The Co-Defendant told investigators that the Defendant and Co-Defendant saw a person at the bus stop who had previously shot at him and his friends. The Defendant and Co-Defendant parked their vehicle around the block. The Defendant and Co-Defendant then walked back to the bus stop and began shooting at the person at the bus stop. The Co-Defendant shot his firearm approximately ten times. The Co-Defendant then heard approximately three shots after he shot his firearm. The Co-Defendant thought the person at the bus stop shot back but was unsure.

The Defendant was previously convicted of a crime of violence and is prohibited from possessing a firearm.

On April 7, 2008, the Defendant was adjudicated delinquent of Burglary in the Second Degree (27-JV-08-1194); and

On May 19, 2010, the Defendant was convicted of Prohibited Person in Possession of a Firearm (27-CR-09-36894).
